

The Legacy Yearbook staff is offering parents the opportunity to purchase senior advertisements. This is a great way to show your Klein Collins senior just how much you care about them! But, act fast! Space is limited and you do not want to miss out on the opportunity. Please mail or deliver all forms and photographs to the address listed above.

In an effort to keep the senior section unified, all design will be completed by the yearbook staff. Please see the grid below for sizes, prices and photo and copy limitations. The design of each ad no matter the size will incorporate a dominant photograph using the most current image you provide. All other pictures will be used as supporting images around the dominant. The first and last name of the student will also be included in the design of the advertisement.

Students may also purchase advertisements together as duos or in groups. If buying ads in group or duo, please provide a picture of all students featured in the ad. This picture will be used as the dominant image in the advertisement.
